

SECONDARY YOUNG WRITERS' CAMP 2017

JUNE
12-16,
2017

EANES ISD
AUSTIN, TEXAS
Westlake High School, NGC

What is Young Writers' Camp?

Young Writers' Camp is a camp where students have opportunities to explore their interests in writing in small groups and to learn more about the craft of writing.

Who should attend Young Writers' Camp?

Students who love to write, who seek feedback and guidance on their work, and who seek creative outlets for their work should plan to attend.

Who teaches Young Writers' Camp?

Through a partnership with Texas State University, experienced Eanes teachers who have participated in the Central Texas Writing Project facilitate each session. Teachers are certified teacher consultants with the CTWP, a local site of the National Writing Project.

Workshop Descriptions

The Passion Project (MS):

A passion project is something you work on that gives you satisfaction, happiness and puts you into a state of flow. It's what you do to escape it all. It's your tiny (or huge) contribution to the world. Join us as we explore topics we are passionate about and learn to connect those with our writing lives. We will also explore the world of TEDed Talks and bring our writing to life through mini TEDed sessions.

Instructors: Rebekah Ellis

EISD Teacher ELA, ESL, National Writing Project Teaching Consultant

Can You Hear Me Now? Finding Your Voice in Writing (MS & HS):

Find your passion, find your voice through creative writing this summer! From publishing a novel or autobiography, to writing songs, short fiction, and/or non-fiction, Young Writers' Camp is sure to inspire! The focus will be on developing the writer's voice and style and the session is open to students in grades 6-12. Gather your ideas and make plans to join us for an enrichment camp that could launch a best seller or send you on an exciting writer's journey!

Instructors: Rhoni McClennahan
